

2013 Grand Circle South America

Full Grand Cruise Voyage 3302F • Grand Circle South America Round-trip Miami • January 16, 2013 • 74 days aboard Crystal Serenity

Is 2013 the year you embark on a Grand Cruise? A truly "Grand" cruise is a combination of remarkable destinations, an unparalleled onboard all-inclusive experience and something that only the World's Best cruise line can offer. Set sail in January 2013 round-trip Miami on an unforgettable 74-day journey that will circumnavigate the entire South American continent visiting 39 exotic ports of call.

Start with a classic Panama Canal transit and opportunities to visit fascinating Galapagos Island and mysterious Machu Picchu. Then marvel at the stunning Chilean Fjords as you make your way south along the west coast to embark on an exciting adventure around the Horn. After sailing from Buenos Aires to Rio, enjoy the natural beauty of the Amazon before heading north back to Miami.

If a shorter trip is on your horizon, this Grand Cruise is conveniently broken into four warm-weather, destination-rich itineraries from just 12 to 24 days. Overnight stays in three embarkation cities allow you ample time to unpack, explore ashore, and also enjoy the all-inclusive amenities of your luxurious home away from home, award-winning Crystal Serenity. See the reverse for a complete voyage listing, choose your cruise, and prepare for an epic vacation to the captivating continent of South America.
